This is the final stage of Sky Dodge.

The outcome will be decided when one side has taken a hit.

What can you say? You're the one who created this plan.

They dare to still continue battling Stern...

They do.

Her style is having an iron wall of defense and using her fire attribute.

To prevent unnecessary magic loss, she practiced precise magic output and timing.

Stern doesn't have a lot of magic power.

It should take time for her magic to restore after using a decisive blow.

That's why, if they keep doing this... she will use a Full Charge.

Since Nanao-chan caught your ball almost without a scratch...

S-She's just too robust!

You're as indirect as ever...

Why didn't you go back in there?

You and I specialize in wide area attacks and it's hard to break through a Sacred Armor type.
